

“Civilian attire, not lewd”

i.e. T-shirts preferred with nil rude slogans and not to reveal shoulders or chest and shorts/skirts must be minimum length of mid-thigh.

Skirts and dresses may only have slits below the knee.

Please note that tights and leggings may only be worn when with an additional clothing item that covers the individual from waist to knee.

AAFC Evening gown standards:

The gown must be appropriate and non-revealing (of cleavage), ie- skirt length must be at least to the top of the knee (ankle length the norm for evening gown) and any slit must only be below the knee.

No strapless outfits.

Backless dresses are only to be worn if a coat or jacket is continuously worn over it.

Low heels are approved.